Aim of the Consultation Workshops

The purpose of the consultation workshops is to provide stakeholders of the NSW Health funded NGO Sector with an opportunity to discuss issues relevant to the review and options for reforming the NSW Health NGO Program.

Broadly the NSW Health NGO Review seeks to undertake the following:

- Describe the NSW Health NGO Program
- Evaluate the NSW Health NGO Program administration
- Investigate good practice in NGO sector support – within NSW, nationally and internationally
- Make recommendations on the best way forward for the NSW Health NGO Program

The aim of the review process is to ensure that NSW Health delivers the most efficient, effective and responsive NGO Program practicable so that NGOs funded by NSW Health are ably supported to provide services aligned to community needs.

Issues to be discussed at the Workshops

A Discussion Paper will be distributed prior to the Workshops and will form the basis of the discussion. If any NGO has not received a copy of the Discussion Paper they can contact Ashlee Tait at atait@doh.health.nsw.gov.au or on (02) 9391 9646 by 10 October.
